

How to Order From Azalea Software

Our fonts are licensed per computer, like all software. If you'll be creating and printing bar codes from only one machine, you need to buy a Single User license. If you'll be bundling our fonts with an application for in-house distribution among co-workers you need to buy a 2-, 5-, or 10-year site license, which is unlimited in-house installations for 24, 60 or 120 months. To distribute any portion of our software with your product or service for resale you will need a Commercial Redistribution license.

To Order:

Print out the order form below. Fill it in completely with the following information:

Product name. You can find more information about different kinds of bar codes at our web site, www.azalea.com.

What kind of license you need:

~Single User license (installation on one computer, does not expire)

~2, 5 or 10 year Site License (unlimited installations for 24, 60 or 120 months)
